WOOD BROS. HOMES

Homes we can both be proud of.
They're a Wood Bros. tradition.

Buying a new home is a big event for you and your family. At Wood Bros. we know that. And it's our goal to see that you get the maximum in homeownership satisfaction and value with your purchase. It's been a matter of pride with us for nearly 30 years.

In that time over 15,000 Wood Bros. homeowners have benefited from that pride. Today we're building homes in over fifty communities in a dozen cities throughout Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and Wyoming.

We've created a whole variety of floorplans and options so that the Wood Bros. house you select becomes your home; a unique and individual reflection of you and your family.

There's something else to consider. Our people. They're professional, friendly and genuinely interested in helping you with everything from interior color selection to warranty maintenance. They're people you can count on.

As homeowners have in the past, you can look to Wood Bros. for quality homes. Homes we can both be proud of.
